Waiting for the Barbarians is a first-person type story. And the man telling the story is himself a magistrate of a small town. All the things in the town were going smoothly but then a rumor comes out. The rumor was, There are some barbarians trying and preparing themselves in order to attack the city.

There is a Hebrew word for wait "psaba". The word psaba means to serve like a waiter waiting to take orders. But that is not the word for Isa. 40:31. The Holy Spirit have chosen only one qavah. The word qavah as we have it in Isa. 40:31 is only used in other places in a strong sense of being gathered together onto God.
